No Question, Just Bonuses

Greetings fellow Q&Aers,

Since there are no questions in the hopper, now would be a good time to send one in.

A special thank you for the bonuses attached to this Q&A, made possible to you from Nancy, Lynda, Ted and a special Christmas bonus from Patty.

As 2004 is winding down my staff and I want to wish each and every one of you a blessed Christmas and a peace-filled and prosperous New Year. Peace, John

THE POSITIVE SIDE OF LIFE

Living on Earth is expensive, but it does include a free trip around the sun every year.

How long a minute is depends on what side of the bathroom door you're on.

Birthdays are good for you; the more you have, the longer you live.

Happiness comes through doors you didn't even know you left open.

Ever notice that the people who are late are often much jollier than the people who have to wait for them?

Most of us go to our grave with our music still inside of us.

If Wal-Mart is lowering prices every day, how come nothing is free yet?

You may be only one person in the world, but you may also be the world to one person.

Some mistakes are too much fun to only make once.

Don't cry because it's over; smile because it happened.

We could learn a lot from crayons: some are sharp, some are pretty, some are dull, some have weird names, and all are different colors....but they all exist very nicely in the same box.

A truly happy person is one who can enjoy the scenery on a detour.

Moses-----

Recently while going through an airport during one of his many trips, President Bush encountered a man with long hair, wearing a white robe and sandals, holding a staff. President Bush went up to the man and said, "Aren't you Moses?" The man never answered but just kept staring ahead. Again the President said, "Moses!" in a loud voice. The man just kept staring ahead, never answering the president.

Soon a secret service agent came along and President Bush grabbed him and said, "Doesn't this man look like Moses to you?" The secret service agent agreed with the President. "Well," said the President, "Every time I say his name, he just keeps staring ahead and refuses to speak. Watch!" Again, the President yelled, "Moses!" and again the man stared ahead. The secret service man went up to the man in the white robe and whispered, "You look just like Moses. Are you Moses?"

The man leaned over and whispered "Yes, I am Moses. But the last time I talked to a bush, I spent 40 years wandering in the desert!"

Hello God, I called tonight
To talk a little while
I need a friend who'll listen
To my anxiety and trial.

You see, I can't quite make it
Through a day just on my own...
I need your love to guide me,
So I'll never feel alone.

I want to ask you please to keep,
My family safe and sound.
Come and fill their lives with confidence
For whatever fate they're bound.

Give me faith, dear God, to face
Each hour throughout the day,
And not to worry over things
I can't change in any way.

I thank you God, for being home
And listening to my call,
For giving me such good advice
When I stumble and fall.

Your number, God, is the only one
That answers every time.
I never get a busy signal,
Never had to pay a dime.

So thank you, God, for listening
To my troubles and my sorrow.
Good night, God, I love You, too,
And I'll call again tomorrow!

Kids Sing Christmas

No one can fracture a Christmas carol better than a child. Here's how some young folk completed lines to famous Christmas carols. Sing along with these new takes on old favorites:

* "Deck the Halls with Buddy Holly ..."

* "We Three Kings of Porridge and Tar ... "

* "On the first day of Christmas, my tulip gave to me ..."

- * "Later on we'll perspire, as we dream by the fire ..."
- * "He's makin a list, chicken and rice ..."
- * "Frosty the Snowman is a ferret elf, I say ..."
- * Sleep in heavenly peas*
- * "In the meadow we can build a snowman ... Then pretend that he is sparse and brown ..."
- * "Oh, what fun it is to ride with one horse, soap and hay ..."
- * "Good tidings we bring to you and your kid ..."
- * "Noel, noel ... noel, noel ... Barney's the king of Israel ..."
